PROGRAM IN CONNECTICUT DESIGNED TO HELP FAMILIES WITH THE COLLEGE FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

If you or anyone in your family is planning to go to college for the fall of 2012, NOW is the time for you to begin working on your college financial aid application. There is a program here in Connecticut called College Goal Sunday of which you need to know!

College Goal Sunday is a free program to help you and your family in the completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the college financial aid application. On Sunday, January 29, 2012, at 1:30 p.m., volunteers from Connecticut college financial aid offices and community agencies will be available at 12 locations across Connecticut to help you with your FAFSA and make sure that applying for financial aid does not become an obstacle that could keep you from going to college. By attending College Goal Sunday, you will receive free assistance with your financial aid application, and you will walk away from the event knowing you tackled one of the scariest steps in getting ready to go to college.

To learn more about College Goal Sunday and register to attend, please visit www.collegegoalsundayct.org. If you do not have access to a computer, you may also call our phone line at 1-888-277-2270.
